33. Copyright Policy

As the owner of the website and the content displayed on it, our group recognizes the importance of protecting the rights of copyright owners. Therefore, we have established the following copyright policy to protect the intellectual property rights of others and to ensure compliance with applicable copyright laws.

All photos, images, and other visual media displayed on our Depa Group website are protected by copyright law. Our group either owns the copyright to these images or has obtained the necessary permissions and licenses from the copyright owners to use them on our website.

Unless otherwise stated, all content, photographs and other images displayed on our website are the exclusive property of Depa Group PLC or our licensors and are protected by copyright laws. Any unauthorized use of these images is strictly prohibited.

Visitors to our website may not copy, distribute, reproduce, modify, or otherwise use any of the images on our website without our prior written consent. If you wish to use any of our images, please contact us to obtain the necessary permissions and licenses.

If you believe that any of the images displayed on our website infringe upon your copyright or the copyright of someone you represent, please contact us immediately at Global IT Service Desk support@ithelp.global. We will promptly remove any infringing material from our website upon receipt of a valid notice of infringement.

Depa Group takes copyright infringement very seriously and will take appropriate legal action against anyone who violates our copyright policy.

By using our website, you acknowledge and agree to abide by our copyright policy. Depa Group reserves the right to modify or update this policy at any time without prior notice.
